

Salmona, J., Banks, M., Ralantoharijoana, T. N., Rasolondraibe, E., Zaranaina, R., Rakotonanahary, A., Wohlhauser, S., Sewall, B. J., Chikhi, L. 2015. The value of the spineless monkey orange tree (Strychnos madagascariensis) for conservation of northern sportive lemurs (Lepilemur milanoii and L. ankaranensis). Madagascar Conservation & Development 10, 2: 53–59. <http://dx.doi.org.104314/mcd.v10i2.3>
Supplementary Material

Figure S1. Illustration of Strychnos madagascariensis tree hole hosting a Daraina sportive lemur. This picture shows a L. milanoii resting in a S. madagascariensis tree hole. (left) Benanofy forest, hole with 2 entries at 3.8 m height and a depth of 1.1 m, credit T. N. Ralantoharijoana. (right) Solaniampilana forest, hole with 1 entries at 3.7 m height and a depth of 0.74 m, credit T. N. Ralantoharijoana.